

The 3 C's Every Singer/ Speaker Needs

by Sharon Tedford

1. Simple ways to Care for your Cords (voice):

Most importantly - _____.

1. Drink _____ your (pounds) body weight, in fluid ounces every day.
2. Drink only _____ water.
3. Water does not actually touch your _____.
4. You can use a _____ and that will go directly to your vocal cords.
5. Be very aware of your _____.
6. Don't drink lots right before you get _____. Hydrate well for at least _____ before your event.
7. You can sip warm manuka honey and lemon in water for about 40 minutes before you speak.
8. Get good _____ before an event. Good sleep helps the voice.
9. No _____ for 24 hours before your event.
10. No _____ drinks.

2. Content Strategies:

1. Make sure to have one _____ running through the concert.
2. Be intentional about using all the _____ space.
3. Consider _____ for just one section because it gives some visual interest.
4. If you use Bible verses, put them _____.

5. When using Scripture, make sure you note the _____ you're using.
6. Consider a _____ you could give your audiences
7. Set expectations about _____.
8. _____ is your friend! Use it to help you drive home the point.
9. If you're using a clip-on or headset mic be very careful with your _____!
10. Close with a summary of what you hope they've learned and a _____.

Repetition:

Again
Over and over
Repeat
Restate
One more time

3. Captivating the Crowd:

1. Each person in your audience is a _____.
2. Use different strategies like songs, pictures, charts, statistics, facts, video, props and _____.
3. Capture their _____ and do something interesting right at the beginning.
4. Be authentic.
5. Greet your people! Make sure you _____ with those who are coming to hear you.
6. When you speak, tell _____ in ways that make the audience feel like they're in a movie.
7. _____ to your audience as you speak.
8. These people have been put in front of you by God Himself. Don't forget that. These people are _____.
9. Be _____ (pray for your listeners) and deliver your talks with honesty and compassion.
10. Tell the stories but each must be for a POINT. _____ people with the stories and then drop in the Truth of _____ while they're truly engaged.

